Workshop on curbing the menace of Ragging in Higher educational institutes and implementation of National Ragging prevention project which is organized by the Anti-Ragging committee, Abhayapuri College. At the beginning of the workshop Principal Dr. Sadananda Nath give a brief presentation of the initiative taken by our institution, some of its action taken are mentioned below. Abhayapuri College on its part has a very strict mechanism to deal with ragging within and even outside its academic and hostel campus. The anti-ragging committee of the college has been constituted in accordance with the UGC and government guidelines. The committee also follows all the orders of the Honourable Supreme Court regarding anti-ragging. The anti-ragging committee of the college constituted as per the UGC guideline in which a representative from the local civil (S.D.O. North-Salmara subdivision), another from the police administration, and a nominated member from Abhayapuri press club (local media) included a member. Special measures are taken to prevent ragging at the time before, during, and after the admission. An anti-ragging squad constitutes comprising teachers/employees and students to prevent ragging in the college/hostel campus. The anti-ragging squad also take the initiative to prevent ragging in private hostel/lodge. Every year awareness programs among the students about UGC rules, regulations & instructions regarding ragging and its consequences, etc. are arranged during the time of new admission and after admission. A number of initiatives are taken to make the college and its hostel a ragging-free zone. It is worth mentioning that there is no record or report of ragging in the college up till now. This is the only thing possible because of the robust policy of the committee and strict vigil taken by the ragging prevention squad during all working days of the college.
