Summary Report

An Add-On Course titled 'Oral History' with 30 contact-hours was conducted by the department of History, Abhayapuri College from 10/09/2021 to 24/02/2022. Altogether, twenty students joined the course and they had successfully completed the course. The course primarily focuses about importance of oral source for reconstruction of history from different perspectives. Adding to this it paved the way for students to develop critical thinking, reading and writing skills. After the course was over, a viva-voce was conducted for their overall assessment regarding the course. After the assessment, it was found that the participant students had acquired the required knowledge for which the course was introduced. At the end, each participant was awarded Certificate to encourage their participation. The department is hopeful that after successful completion of the course students have learnt about also a valuable professional skill as now a days, many historical and cultural organizations are interested in developing oral history projects and our students will know how to do so.
