Brief Report of the Trip:

Tulunadouchaya is a great festival hosted by Mangalore city to revive the Tulu language of this region. According to the scholars of Tulu language that the language is now in verse of extinct due to unused by the local people of Mangalore. The present scenario of the language is very much critical as most of people of this region use Kanada language in home and the new generation use basically English language. Therefore, the scholars of the language are trying to revive the language by encouraging the people to use this as a primary language and every year they organize this festival to motivate the people to speak Tulu.

This time the organizers invited cultural group from the North East and North East Zone Cultural Centre communicated to Gauhati University for Bihu Group and one folk dance from Sikkim. Gauhati University communicated to Principal of Abhayapuri College and Coordinator of NSS of Abhayapuri College. After that they decided to send a bihu group of thirteen (13) participants and one teacher-in-charge and one contingent leader from the teaching staff.

The journey was started from the New Bongaigaon railway station on 19-12-2017 and reached Mangalore on 21-12-2017 at 8.30 pm. A cultural procession was organized at the morning at 9.00am and the schedule of the show was 22-12-2017 at 7.30 pm. The Bihu team of Abhayapuri College performed very nicely which earned appreciation from all corners of the audience as well as from the organizer. The return journey was schedule on 25-12-2017 and reached Bongaigaon on 28-12- 2017. This was a very great experience of the group and a memorable trip for them. The organizers provide best of their hospitality and accommodation.

The group offers their sincere thanks to Dr. S. Nath Principal, Abhayapuri College and Prof. J. Bora, Coordinator of NSS of Abhayapuri College for their constant support throughout their journey. The group is thankful to Dr. R.Kakoty, director of Student welfare of Gauhati University for selecting Abhayapuri College to participate in the festival. The Group would also like to offer their sincere gratitude to Mr. Bhupen Ray, Ex-MLA of North Salmara, Bongaigaon district, Honourable railway minister Mr. Rajen Gohain, Dr Sanjeev Goswami, P.A of railway minister and Director North East Zone Cultural Centre.
